Young Chef of Eaton, Hong Kong Shines at HOFEX

(Hong Kong, 18 May 2015) – The celebrated Food and Beverage team at Eaton, Hong Kong, has once again added an award to their legacy of culinary excellence.

Competing with other young talents across the hospitality industry in the “Pastry-Under 25 Young Pastry Chefs Chocolate Coffee Cake” category – Vicky Ho, Commis Chef from the Eaton, Hong Kong’s Pastry Kitchen, won her first silver medal at HOFEX 2015, the region’s leading hospitality tradeshow.

Under intensive training and guidance from Ben Choi, the Hotel’s award winning pastry chef, Vicky’s handmade Chocolate Coffee Cake, moist and rich in flavour, was a standout entry among the rest of the category’s entries and rightly won the judges’ appreciation.

“It’s been like a dream come true!” said Vicky, the passionate young pastry chef with a cheerful smile, “I was thrilled just to be shortlisted, this award is a great boost to my personal and professional endeavors.”

Commenting on the award, Ms. Kitty Tang, the Hotel’s Director of Food and Beverage said, “We are delighted that our junior chef has been recognised by an international organisation of such high renown. This clearly demonstrates that we have wonderfully talented rising stars that are helping to create a wonderful food and beverage experience for our guests.”
